Howdy folks, let's go for a ride
Get your favorite one to sit by your side
Cuddle up in the sleigh, giddy-up, Nelly Gray
And away we go

While you're listening to the sleigh bells ring
You're yodeling to your baby
You'll feel nice and warm
No matter how cold it may be

Take a look at little Jack and Jill
They ski down a hill
There's a snow plow turn

Look, there's a spill
There's a spill on the hill
When you're down, it's a thrill
To get up again

Everybody ought to learn to ski
'Cause that's how we first met
We were that Jack and Jill
That came down the hill

When I looked at you
My heart took a spill
Took a spill on the hill
It's a thrill that I can't forget

It happened in Sun Valley
Not so very long ago
There were sunbeams in the snow
And a twinkle in your eye

I remember, oh, so clearly
That you nearly passed me by
Then it happened in Sun Valley
When you slipped and fell, and so did I

Catch me, Stan, eeew
Look Stan, I made a snow angel, eeew

I remember, oh, so clearly
That you nearly passed me by
Then it happened in Sun Valley
When you tripped and fell, and so did I

Now every year we go back and then
We recall that fall and that moment when
We were there on the hill
So, we both take a spill and we're Jack and Jill, again
Eew
