A great adventure is waiting for you ahead hurry onward's Lemmiwinks or you will soon be dead

A journey before may be long and filled with woe but you must escape the gay man's ass so your tale can be told

Lemmiwinks, Lemmiwinks, Lemmiwinks

Lemmiwinks journeyed a distance far and fast to find his way out of a gay man's ass

The road ahead is filled with danger and fright but push onwards Lemmiwinks with all of your might Lemmiwinks, you are coming to the entrance of the small intestines. There, you must seek out the sparrow prince.

The sparrow prince lies somewhere way up ahead Don't look back Lemmiwinks
Or you will soon be dead

Lemmiwinks, Lemmiwinks, the time is growing late slow down now and seal your fate

I am the sparrow prince, long has my spirit been trapped in this place. Before you lies the maze of the small intestines. One path leads to the stomach, the other, to certain doom. Take with you this helmet and torch, let them be your guide.

Take the magic helmet torch to help you light the way there's still a lot of ground to pass inside the man so gay ahead of you lies adventure and your strength still lies within freedom from the ass of doom is the treasure you will win

Lemmiwinks came to the stomach in the depths of the lung and heart

You choose your path wisely Lemmiwinks, I am the Catatafish.
(The catatafish of the stomach's cove)
If you answer this riddle, the esophogous will let you pass.
(Catatafish's riddle will soon be told)

Hang on Lemmiwinks, you solved the Catatafish's riddle, now your trials are nearly through!

Lemmiwinks has made it out, the tale is nearly through.

Great job Lemmiwinks, thanks to you we are all free.
But your adventures are just beginning, for you are no ordinary gerbil Lemmiwinks, you are the gerbil king.
All hail the gerbil king!

Now that you're the gerbil king there's more adventure to be told, fly away to far away lands and to the setting sun, there's still so many enemies and battles yet to fight, for Lemmiwinks the gerbil king to be told another night.

Lemmiwinks x8
Gerbil king
