"Love Lost Long Ago"

Just look at all these little families.
Newfound couples in a happy home.
It takes me back to another time,
When I had a love of my own...

Love! Love lost long ago!
It was special then! It's over now!
Love! So darn frail, you know!
It shriveled and dried, I don't know how!

Love! Love lost long ago!
It was special then! It's over now!
Guess! That I'll never know!
How it all went wrong, how, how, how.

But perhaps I should try to boldly go
and rekindle that love
lost long ago.
