(yo nina,soda pop)you take the breath from me, make my life heavenly, i can't believe the way the good lord is blessing me,one in a million mother of my children,me without you is like car with out engine,you listen to the dreams that i vision respect that i smoke maryjane it's like my religion the pigeons sometimes make you worry, but i can see you know my visions aren't blurry,the innocence still strong like a feminies, i remenise on the first time we ever kissed in this devilish world your my only angel, canceled concerts to stay with you and watch cable,kiss your navel,candle lights on the table,you never cared if i was 5mins late you'd leave stable,12 years to me it feels like 12 minutes my love for you see's no limits, chorus:

where would i be without you,i know i wouldn't be rappen
under sound proof,i know i wouldn't be pushing a benz,i probably be getting transfered to different penz or chillen with my dead friends or still at tha weed house makin' 5's and 10's, miss perfect god given,when i was lost you made my life worth livin'

they say nothing on this earth is perfect,i don't believe it you never cheated perfect record undefeated, i needed a mirical to save my life, when i was hustlin'and grinding late at night,i paid the price and listen to you bitch at me, you start bring up tha past thats history, never again will i jeprodice thats a promise that i'll memorize real love never dies,its paradise no matter where we at tha movies,tha club,six flags or super track, i was a drop out no education what so ever, but you stuck with me through all kinds of fucked up weather, hopin' days would get better like i said they would, they said stand by your man and their you stood, i was 17 now

i'm 29 and i pray you'll be mine till the end of time
chorus:
(yo ivey i know you feel me on this song baby,man for sure i got something for this) now i'm at that point of my life, i lost my kids and my wife, i've been up thinking for snit, when i been up in tha night, so i be thinking inside and i be wondering why but now i know its to late cause all i got is my fate and i be thinking relife about my kids when they sleep, and where tha hell i went wrong and how tha hell to stay strong cause now my babies they gone, and all i got is this song,try to make it alright,and if i had one more night that i could treasure for life, i know i'd do it alright with just my kids and my wife
given,when
