We got to work for a better future
We've got to join hands for tomorrow
Take the first step and you will see
The future begins with you and me

We can start to make a difference
If we want it for our children
Recycle that can and plant that tree
Cuz the future begins with you and me

We've got to work for a better future
We've got to join hand for tomorrow
Take the first step and you will see
The-

Stan: Wait. This is gay

Kyle: This is really gay.

Cartman: This is even gayer than all the men getting in the pile and having sex with each other.

Man: We're going back to pile. Back to the pile everybody!
