After the wind dried my eyes
Baby, I knew I'd have to make it without you I was up all night telling myself lies that I didn't need you
Oh, you know I need you, baby

Blinded by pride, I sent you away Spend all my time just thinking about you
And all the words that I'd like to say Stayed inside me, wish you were here beside me

All that fills my life is emptiness and trouble
How could I be so wrong?

Just as long as the sun rises in the morning
Long as the stars shine at night
Just as long as the river's flowin' my love's gonna keep on growing
Babe, it's all the same, some things just don't change, baby

Got home today and I got your letter Cried all night long Thought by this time I'd be feeling better Come on home, I've been so lonely

Through my tears I see your face
How could I be so wrong?

Just as long as the sun rises in the morning
Long as the stars shine at night
Just as long as the river's flowin' my love's gonna keep
on growing
Babe, it's all the same, some things just don't change

They just don't change, baby and I'm gonna love you Long as the sun rises, long as the stars shine at night
And always, and always I'm gonna keep on lovin' you,
baby
I can't help myself, no matter where you go you're still my baby
No matter where you are, you're still my little girl, and always Come on home, come on home, the door is always open
