(B. Springsteen/S. Van Zandt)

When you dance, I hear the music rocking everywhere
When you dance, I see the light shining through your hair

When you dance, the band is blowing like a hurricane When you dance, you look so fine but you don't know my name

Come here, baby, don't be afraid
Just one taste won't do
I can't hold back one more day
Sugar, I know I got to dance with you

When you dance, your smile's hiding what you're thinking of
When you dance, your body trembles like you're making love
When you move, baby, my soul is aching and my blood runs hot
Running through me now, my heart is breaking Shaking what you got

Come here, baby, don't be afraid
Just one taste won't do
I can't hold back one more day
Sugar, I know I got to dance with you

Come here, baby, don't be afraid
Just one taste won't do
I can't hold back one more day
Sugar, I know I got to dance with you

When you dance, I hear the music rocking everywhere
When you dance, the sky can tumble, honey, I don't care
When you dance
When you dance
When you dance
