I'm running blind into the dark
Cause I can't find my way, my way back home
You clearly stole my heart
Pretending your goodbyes were my hellos

The smile upon my face is gone
How do you live your life with all you've done
Was I so blind to see, who knows
I'll never understand your damaged soul

You've gone and broke another promise
Think I should've known the truth from the start
To you it's just a game
As you fired a shot, shot, shot through the heart
I'm looking for some solace
To never know the reasons why we fell apart
To me it's all the same
It's all just a shot, shot, shot through the heart

I guess you never felt the pain
The kind that never goes away, away at all
I was too blind to see, I know
I'll never know the way you chose to go

You've gone and broke another promise
You think I should've known the truth from the start
To you it's just a game
As you fired a shot, shot, shot through the heart
I'm looking for some solace
To never know the reasons why we fell apart
To me it's just the same
It's all just a shot, shot, shot through the heart

You've gone and broke another promise
Think I should've known the truth from the start
To you it's just a game
As you fired a shot, shot, shot through the heart
And if the hurt should ever go away
I know the memories are here to stay
I'll still feel, still feel your shot, shot, shot through the heart

W.E.™ I say it again, you gave me a shot, shot, shot through the heart
Another shot through the heart
