Millions of hearts are beating tonight so few are beating together how many lovers turn out the lights still chasing dreams of forever

You and I don't have to try it's such a natural kind of magic when

There is a light I swear you can feel making it right, making it so real and this love between me and you baby, it's one, one of a precious few

There's so many people might want what I got but that doesn't make me a genius I know I'm just lucky, but lucky or not still there's a power between us and I know deep in my soul it's gonna last us both a lifetime when...

and this love between me and you
baby, it's one, one of a precious few

Oh, everywhere I look I see lovers goin' through the motions and when they look at you and me do they even have a notion...

There is a light I swear you can feel
and this love between me and you

and this love between me and you
baby, it's one, one of a precious few I know it's one, one of a precious few
