We went walking everyday
Just talking all along the way
Dogs barkin' tryin' to make them stay in the park
But it's windy in the cold
Is this just a picture in my head as I grow old

Someone stop this loco train
Cause I wanna get on and ride again
Your eyes show me where to go when I don't know
The way to you, to you, to you, to you

Stress crept into harmony's way
We used bad words we don't say
I tried to stay out of your way
And you cradled the floor everyday
That I was gone
How could a right this right ever go wrong

Someone stop this loco train
Cause I wanna get on and ride again
Your eyes show me where to go when I don't know
The way to you, to you, to you, to you

Summer fades right into the fall
You don't want to see winter at all
I don't want to go on without you
Cause you are my foot and I am your shoe
And I can't say how I feel
Cause life without you is totally unreal

Someone stop this loco train
Cause I wanna get on and ride again
Your eyes show me where to go when I don't know
The way to you

Someone stop this loco train
Cause I wanna get on and ride again
Your eyes show me where to go when I don't know
The way to you, to you, to you, to you
To you, to you, to you, to you, to you
