"My Weakness"

Visit "My Weakness" on MotoLyrics.com

Hi mom remember me I'm your son
I was not afraid of those who would destroy us
I do not remember why I wanted to join up
I just want to come home
I know I'm so far away now I flew here on a jetplane
Cuz I was so excited but I do not know why
This just cannot be right

You just knew my weakness
I was alone when you found me you were my only friend
I know you can beat this carry me all the way back home with you again

I have done a very bad thing I have no use for trying I'm so far away now there is no other way out
I will not be coming home ever again

I know the times are a changing
Father please just rearrange me
I can't see you in my place now
Cracked and torn is my hardened face now
