I'm a man and you're a man and we don't understand
Why the world is such a funny shape it is so bland
If I wanted to kill or assassinate the queen
They would only lock me up and throw away the key

Then you'd never get out Then you'd never get in

No one understands me
No one understands
No one understands me
No one understands

If I wanted to be someone I think I would be Margaret thatcher she's so cool I think she should be queen
Now if you should agree with this then I think you should be Hung and drawn and quartered and then thrown into the sea

And then you'd never get out
Because you can't swim

No one understands me
No one understands
No one understands me
No one understands

No one understands me
No one understands
No one understands me
No one understands

No one understands me
No one understands
No one under, no one under
No one understands me

No one understands me
No one understands
No one under, no one under

No one understands me
