What makes someone fall for someone
When they were obviously never meant to be?
I will never know
But I'm glad it's working out for you and me
For sticking by me when no-one else would
Now I'm stuck on you, thank you very much
For feeling the same way as I feel bout you
Oh boy, oh boy, oh boy, thank you very much

We fight, we argue, we make up
Isn't that what they call love?
We fight, we argue, we make up
It's just another name for love

It's cool to be with someone
When that someone happens to be that someone you weren't meant to love
It's cool to be with someone
When that someone happens to be that someone you weren't supposed to love

For ignoring all my friends when they say I'm no good
I am your number one fella, thank you very much For laughing at my jokes even though they're never funny
I'm falling in love here,
Hey, thank you very much

For giving me a kick when I need a kicking
You kicked me into touch, thank you very much
For holding my head up when my head was down
Who needs a valium, thank you very much

We fight, we argue, we make up
Isn't that what they call love?
We fight, we argue, we make up
It's just another name for love

For sticking by me when no-one else would
Now I'm stuck on you, thank you very much
For feeling the same way as I feel bout you
Oh boy, oh boy, oh boy, thank you very much

For giving me a kick when I need a kicking
You kicked me into touch, thank you very much
For holding my head up when my head was down
Who needs a valium, thank you very much
