Hello everybody, welcome to cooking with Brak.
You know, everybody at one or another time has enjoyed that wonderful oriental delight, the Poo Poo Platter. Well today I'm going to go one step better and prepare Brak's special Poo Poo Poo Platter.
You notice that there's an extra "poo" there.
It's the extra poo that makes all the difference.
I could have taken the easy rode and done a Poo
Platter, but who wants a platter with just one poo?
I found that even the conventional two Poo Platter leaves one a little bit, how should I say it, unfulfilled.
I just so find that's not the case when you experience
the thrill of an extra poo.
Space Ghost: "Brak!!!"
Brak: "What!!!"
Space Ghost: "There's no time left for your Poo Poo Platter"
Brak: "You mean my Poo Poo Poo Platter" Space Ghost: "Whatever, put your poo in the refrigerator and we'll try to work it in another show."
Brak: "Somebody's gonna steal my poo, I just know it!
What've if I make a sign that says 'THIS IS BRAK'S POO, DON'T TOUCH IT!!!"
Space Ghost: "That should do it."
