(Royston Langdon)

I know you know I've been damaged, savaged
You know I know that it's sordid, horrid
But you're not the only one I love
You think you're someone sent from up above
Well, I'd kiss your hands, your feet, your hair

Well, if I'm a man, then I'm your fan
You're the best thing I'm ever going to have
So take my hand and carry on and on and on

Ain't no mistaking, this is taking and raping
I'm sick and tired from dreams awaking, I'm faking
But you're not the only one I love
You think you're someone sent from up above
I kissed your hands, your feet, your hair

Well, if I'm a man, I'm your fan
You're the best thing I'm ever going to have
So take my hand and carry on and on and on
