The food is on the table
The dew is on the lawn (?)
Where are the arms that held me
Who gave me love before

(Chorus)
Well it will rain
It will pour
La dee dee - La dee da
The old man will stroll right out of bed
Now I will go to Hell
I might as well be hung for a sheep as a lamb

This town's a deal of windows
It can hear the star fall far
Where are the words that soothe me
Who gave me love before

(Chorus)
Yes, I'll go to Hell
I might as well be hung for a sheep as a lamb
And from the river to the sea you'll follow me
Send those kisses riding on the tide
It takes my little love affair for a fancy dream
So beware,
The ocean steals the premiss of your mind.

(Chorus)
And I'll go to Hell
I might as well be hung for a sheep as a lamb
And I'll go to Hell
And I'll go to Hell
Yes, I'll go to Hell
I might as well be hung for a sheep as a lamb
