We are never coming down
I got up, can't get down It's like when you get to the start of the day
The start of the day go run run away We're still never coming down the hair of a dog in the face of a clown like when you get to the start of a day the start of a day go run run away
The moral of the story lies Behind the holes that pass four eyes
Between the cracks in shallow lives
Let the candyman decide
And when you're older just remember It's not so long since you was younger Roll around and you're always high Always look but you never find Everybody in the world is bent
