Dehjaia:

Tiffanie and Lil Annoyance
These bitches is real wankstas
Nah they wackheads because
They be sayin stuff that ain't even real
How can you tell a story and don't even feel
Let me tell you

Growin up in the hood is hard
But you should know because you duck from gunshots
almost everyday
I know that
But Tiffanie Johns don't know what she talkin bout
All up my mouth
Sayin she from the dirty south
Yeah right
She don't know what she talkin about
She a real wackhead
She's only seventeen
And she talkin real shit
And Lil Annoyance can't help it one bit
She one real bitch
All the shit that she be talkin
Fallin in and out of love with some white boys
Who she grew up with
See these bitches need they head thrown
Thinkin that they all grown
Frontin if they could like they really puttin on a show

These wackheads gotta go boy
They don't need to be in the rap game
They don't know what's happening
Bitch please
You ain't nothin but seventeen
What you know about sellin crack on tha streets
Grow in a nice home think you grown
Talkin bout shit you neva eva witnessed
I guess this means you don't even feel nothin real
So stop talkin shit you don't even feel

Anotha thing

How you gon roll with the Cherry Clique
Claimin some fake shit
All up in some grown shit
What the fuck
Are you gay why y'all clique so fruity
Lil Hustle don't got a dime
He just beggin little girls for money
Honey
And anyway I can't stand how they claim that Ashame how they use that
Don't even know how to front
I think it's time y'all need to shut them down
They really need to bounce
Cause I can't take this no more
Y'all bitches can't wear no crown cause

These wackheads gotta go boy
They don't need to be in the rap game
They don't know what's happening
Bitch please
You ain't nothin but seventeen
What you know about sellin crack on tha streets
Grow in a nice home think you grown
Talkin bout shit you neva eva witnessed
I guess this means you don't even feel nothin real
So stop talkin shit you don't even feel

Penny Walker:
Really y'all need to get up out of the door
Cause y'all are pitty
And y'all look like shit
I don't start no shit
I just finish it
And we finishin what y'all started
Shit
