It started out when I met this girl
She threw me down on this spinning world
I'm over my head, yeah it could have been
But I'm a bird with broken wings,
She's a song I love to sing
Come curl up to me, we'll let our bodies test their chemistry
She's got blue eyes and a smile like the sun
And then she cries "I think I'm done"

But then I swear that she's the one
(Swear she's the one)
I swear that she's the one
(Swear that she's the one)
I swear that she's the one
I swear that she's the one
That I'm falling for

Love's a tree growing in your heart
Better look out when the roots start
I'm the bloom that began such a long time ago
Now I'm waking up to the sounds of the birds
Whose shadows race me up her tree,
And though my feet may never catch a flying thing
Well I am damn sure of it;
I could catch you
I would never let you fall
Eyes to the sun and then she cries
"I think I'm done"

But then I swear that she's the one
(Swear she's the one)
I swear that she's the one
(Swear that she's the one)
I swear that she's the one
I swear that she's the one
That I'm falling for

Where your feet meet your legs
Where your heart meets your head
There is a sound that echoes out supersonically

Do you think that we're all doomed the children
Of the oil bloom
Change the subject, put a flower in your hair
The world, it spins, but we go nowhere
She's got blue eyes, a smile like the sun
And then she cries
"I think I'm done"

But then I swear that she's the one
(Swear she's the one)
I swear that she's the one
(Swear that she's the one)
I swear that she's the one
I swear that she's the one
That I'm falling for

She's got blue eyes, a smile like the sun
And then she cries
"I think I'm done"
I swear that she's the one
I swear that she's the one
