Man, there's never been a girl like this
That's not Nastassia
What an influential little Miss
That's not Nastassia

Imitation is a form of flattery, I'm told
She is getting flattered where it's hot and where it's cold

That's not Nastassia
That's not Nastassia
That's not Nastassia

She is on the news again tonight
That's not Nastassia
Someone looking like her stole a bike
That's not Nastassia

Maybe it's a fad, a sort of modern Hula Hoop
Still it's of their own free will, no one has been duped

That's not Nastassia
That's not Nastassia
That's not Nastassia

What a sense of power to have sway around the world
What a sense of power to control a billion girls
Change your hair style, they change theirs
Change your nail style, they change theirs

That's not Nastassia

Presidential wives and topless maids
That's not Nastassia
More or less identically the same
That's not Nastassia

If I wasn't masculine, I would join the craze
Dye my hair and take on those Nastassianic ways

That's not Nastassia
That's not Nastassia

That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia

That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia
That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia

That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia
That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia

Now she wants some anonymity
That's not Nastassia
And all the rest want anonymity
That's not Nastassia

She should just forget it, it's a carbon copy world
When she starts to fade away everyone will fade

That's not Nastassia
That's not Nastassia
That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia

That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia
That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia

That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia
That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia

That's not Nastassia
That's Nastassia
