You move through my body like an ocean yeah
Didn't take you long to get to my heart
I stood on your porch in the commotion of
The bustling city and it's busy heart well
I sat in your room and played my six string yeah
Laid back and stared up at your ceiling well
Your hair looked so good over my shoulder now
We're getting older, time has no hold on me
But she's got
She's got control over me

Tonight has lasted long enough
The sun is coming
From dusk 'till dawn we tear it up
The sun is coming out
I just want to hear your sounds
We love like vampires
You'll be lost and never found
Dancing the underground

I think that I've lost all of my feelings
No, I think it's you that last all of the meaning
When the world turned around and around yeah
The love that we found has gone drifting away
She's always drifting
She's always drifting away

Tonight has lasted long enough
The sun is coming
From dusk 'till dawn we tear it up
The sun is coming out
I just want to hear your sounds
We love like vampires
You'll be lost and never found
Dancing the underground

You know I said you never
You know I say
Oh yes it so well
You know I said you never fight fair
You're always jumping on my back

You bite my neck like a bad habit,
Yeah now it's all coming back

Tonight has lasted long enough
The sun is coming
From dusk 'till dawn we tear it up
The sun is coming out
I just want to hear your sounds
We love like vampires
You'll be lost and never found
Dancing the underground
