If only you,

Look where we are, falling apart
And nothing seems to mend
This state of you, this state of me

Who do you think you're fooling now?
I guess we'll never find it out.
Who do you think you're fooling now, now?

If only you, if only you,
Could see that I'm burning,
If only you, would know how I'm hurting
All for you

I guess it's all right, I keep my head high
You'll never see me cry
Confused over you, better by me, yeah

Who do you think you're fooling now?
I guess we'll never find it out.
Who do you think you're fooling now, now?

If only you, if only you,
Could see that I'm burning,
If only you, would know how I'm hurting,
All for you
If only you

(If only you) would know me better
(If only you) would listen better
(If only you) would see me better
(If only you) would hear me better
Set me free, before you press delete
Yeah yeah yeah yeah

If only you
Could see that I'm burning,
If only you, would know how I'm hurting,
All for you
If only you

If only you, you.
Baby, it's all for you
If only you
