We were gonna set fire to the city
We were gonna break down the doors
We just wanted to be winners and not losers
Talk the talk, yeah walkin' the walk

We were gonna set fire to the city
All I see is a burning bridge
And we're standing in the side of the valley
Riot began on either side of the street

I don't roll back the time between us
I don't wanna go back to better days
You don't know that our hearts they beat together
You don't know my heart is in the right place
You don't know my heart is in the right place

We swore we'd always be the leaders
We swore we'd keep on keeping on
We swore we'd be winners and not losers
Talk the talk, yeah walkin' the walk

We were fools to take love for granted
We were fools to break love apart
In a shell with a pearl inside it
Ain't no jewel in a broken heart

I don't roll back the time between us
I don't wanna go back to better days
You don't know that our hearts they beat together
You don't know my heart is in the right place
You don't know my heart is in the right place

Who's to say that we won't be stronger
I ain't ever gonna lose my hunger
Oh yeah

I don't roll back the time between us
I don't wanna go back to better days
You don't know that our hearts they beat together
You don't know my heart is in the right place
You don't know my heart is in the right place

You don't know my heart is in the right place
