I'm gonna walk straight down to the telephone wires
'cause that where your parents live We're gonna talk and get this shit out of our heads you know words are sedatives Speak loud, speak soft, speak anything you want Just don't use your tongue against me

I'm feeling your blue skies
Through an overcast of clouds
And I know that you're the weather now

Oh, Mexico instead we're drinking margaritas in the snow
As the world it slowly falls apart
Oh, my calico you know I said we go too fast to take it slow
Is it hard with such a heavy heart?

I burn up like a chemical fire when I'm reacting to your touch
We're gonna walk straight down to the rock coast and pray for the ocean water to cover us Speak loud, you're allowed.
Scream 'we're gonna get out of this town'
Is it hell? No, it's not hell when you're around.
It's not hell when you're around.

I'm feeling your blue skies
Through an overcast of clouds
And I know that you're the weather now

snow
As the world, you know it slowly falls apart
slow
Is it hard with such a heavy heart?

Mexico, Mexico I'm saying hello, hello to Mexico

Walking on the beach just holding your hand Pushing our feet into the sand

Do it again I'll lock it tightly
Givin' you lovin' nightly
Faces of the Saturn people
Keep it comin' evil
I've been missin' you again

Oh, Mexico instead we're drinking margaritas in the
snow
As the world it slowly falls apart
slow
Is it hard with such a heavy heart?

Oh la la la la la
Oh la la la la la
