This home, this place
It turns back on time and space
We hope, you pray
But today is still today
Oh we ran ourselves ragged
All these broken backs, tragic
We try, you fail

Another Mark you left in Hell
This cut, will run
But the guilt has just begun
Oh we ran ourselves ragged
All these broken backs, tragic

The future bleeds
All these wasted seeds
Don't let it go
We're taking back control
The future needs
All these wasted seeds
Don't let it go
We're taking back control

This hole you tore
Left blood on every door
We hope, you find
Tragedy will change your mind
Oh we ran ourselves ragged
All these broken backs, tragic

The future bleeds
All these wasted seeds
Don't let it go
We're taking back control
The future needs
All these wasted seeds
Don't let it go
We're taking back control
