You put your fist in the ground
You went from quiet to loud
You found you're broken in half
Today

You set a fire to forget
To burn up all your regret
But really nothing has changed
Today

You can't go on this way
You can't move on

Erase and start it again
Accidents happen but these cuts don't scar
Erase and start it again
Mistakes dig in and you've gone too far

You find you're living in fear
You've been dying for years
You hit the end of the road
Today

Condemned but couldn't understand
You tried but pride held you back
Your eyes are open again
Today

You can't go on this way
You can't move on

Erase and start it again
Accidents happen but these cuts don't scar
Erase and start it again
Mistakes dig in and you've gone too far

You can't go on this way
You can't move on

Erase and start it again
Accidents happen but these cuts don't scar
Erase and start it again

Mistakes dig in and you've gone too far

Erase and start it again

Erase and start it again

Erase and start it again

Erase and start it, start it again
