The plane is intact
From the front to the back
Is waiting for you

So do what you can
For blood and feelin'

And it's alright
Yeah, it is alright
All that's left is execution now
With us playing the shadows of the sound

Before the moment to pass
Think more so that hearts to the souls
All the powers and it loses all control
We're waiting for you

I'm coming cold it's so much than reach
And it's alright, alright, alright
We get on whether it is falling at your feet
Beg your conscience but it's alright, alright, alright

And then we get on with this life
More fast and find the place in time
Before the moment to last
Let's feel runnin' down away

False start but my men under doesn't care
We're waiting for you

Comin', comin', it's so much than reach
And it's alright, alright, alright
We get on whether it is falling at your feet
Beg your conscience but it's alright, alright, alright

The plane is intact
All that's left now
Is waiting for you

So do what you can

For blood and feelin'

All that's left now
Is waiting for you

Come on, come on it's so much than reach
And it's alright, alright, alright
We get on whether it is falling at your feet
Beg your conscience but it's alright, alright, alright

It's alright
