When you fall
You fall on your own
Let it slip away

When you land
You land on your own
Let it slip away

Realize you try to find something
A branch to hold onto
Make peace with your actions

In your last ditch attempt
Find your redemption
Make peace with your actions
Make peace with your actions

When you feel
You feel all alone
Let it slip away

When you die
You die on your own
Let it slip away

Realize you try to find something
A branch to hold onto
Make peace with your actions

In your last ditch attempt
Find your redemption
Make peace with your actions

Realize you try to find something
A branch to hold onto

In your last ditch attempt
Find your redemption
Make peace with your actions

Make peace with your actions

Make peace with your actions
Make peace with your actions
Make peace with your actions
