Please excuse me I meant no harm in being born As world falls open wide Like a wounded solider falls Breaks backs in silence Don't fall around me this time Don't fall around me this time My lost awakening I've found the same as life before When after another lonely wounded solider falls like light fantastic that falls upon my shoulder fall don't fall upon my shoulder She gave me a call So I gave her a smile When I asked her for love

And what I should dial She said 'Zero, zero, zero, zero' Please excuse me I meant no harm in being born As world falls open wide Like a wounded solider falls Breaks backs in silence Don't fall around me this time Don't fall around me this time I gave her a car So she gave me a smile When I asked her for love And what I should drive She said 'Zero, zero, zero, zero'
