"I Wanna Fall"

Actually I'm used to it
Once again I can't handle it
Actually I'm used to not
Not escaping from the deep
Voices in my heart
It's about to start
Someone is laughing behind
The only thing I say is:

I wanna fall...I wanna fall...
I wanna fall...I wanna fall...

Tears are not coming anymore
The pain is already dead
You never waited for me
You also never cared
It's so hard to believe
What I'm thinking about
I guess I've lost my mind
For me there's no bound

I wanna fall! I wanna fall!
I wanna fall! I wanna fall!

Everything left me...
I know; everything left me...
