nothing stays the same life forever will change oh oh rock and roll ive got it dont you know my lifes been changed by rock and roll yeah lifes been changed by rock now that we are all older take a look at your life is it the way it should have been living by wrong not right and gangs they arnt the answer man fight ing for a piece of land all you do is fight fight fight and baby thats wrong not right remember when you were young at heart your hair cut short and faded dreams tell me do you think lifes the same rolling nowhere on this crazy train no nothing stays the same
