This one goes out for you and yours

[Incomprehensible]

Family, family

[Incomprehensible] crucial

Party people

Don't tell the DJ got to turn it low

We keep on rocking to the early mornin'

I say hey, now now

I say hey, now now

Don't tell the people that they got to go

I wanna keep 'em 'til the early mornin'

I say hey, now now

I say hey, now now

You've been a soldier gal

And I would do anything for you, it's true, it's true

I wanna be there in the early morn

I'm gonna light up the night for you, it's true, it's true

Don't tell the DJ got to turn it low

We keep on rocking to the early mornin'

I say hey, now now

I say hey, now now

Don't tell the people that they got to go

I wanna keep 'em 'til the early mornin'

I say hey, now now

I say hey, now now, yeah

Rum pum pum come on and join this party

Your rhythm of the music make me feeling irie

Hey now, it doesn't matter where you're comin' from

Dancing to the rhythm on the filling of the drummer

Just to do the things that

Make the people come together

Use the money maker that was given from your mama

Hey now select upon the gadget, rubba dabba

Come, come, come to the sunshine now

Don't tell the DJ got to turn it low
We keep on rocking to the early mornin'
I say hey, now now
I say hey, now now, yeah

Don't tell the DJ got to turn it low
We keep on rocking to the early mornin'
I say hey, now now
I say hey, now now, hey, yeah

Be who you are, nothing more, nothing less
And let the beauty that you love be the very best Sing praises to the Highest with your feet on the ground
And reach for your brother with the words that you
sound

And don't let mistakes be so monumental
And don't let your love be so confidential
And don't let your mind be so darn judgmental
And please let your heart be more influential

Be thankful for all that the spirit provides
And be thankful for all that you see without eyes
Give thanks to the music that keeps us alive
And give thanks to all DJ's worldwide

Don't tell the DJ got to turn it low
We keep on rocking to the early mornin'
I say hey, now now
I say hey, now now

Don't tell the people that they got to go
I wanna keep 'em 'til the early mornin'
I say hey, now now
I say hey, now now

When the artist need to be original
Radio active in the place

The music in the harmony, the family and friends
It seems that when you dancing, man, the feeling never ends
The bass of the bass, the voice of the drum
The bumble of the keys, my weapon is my tongue

If there's love in the rhythm then the soul is gonna follow
We turnin' up the system, it'll go until tomorrow
If you need some money, I got some that you can borrow

We'll get it till the sun come up and cast shadows

Right now the tomb reflects
Lights out, we soon connect
We ride, on lows and high
So hot that we sweat, so happy we cry

Wish bygones, goodbye, thank God we's alive
With time on our side and this rhyme I provide
We smile or we slide, do I say goodbye?
We keep you rocking like the sound of a lion

Don't tell the DJ got to turn it low
We keep on rocking to the early mornin'
I say hey, now now
I say hey, now now

Don't tell the people that they got to go
I wanna keep 'em 'til the early mornin'
I say hey, now now
I say hey, now now, yeah

I listen to the drummer and I'm gonna listen to the bass
I listen to the rhythm, make you wanna be your best
I listen to the drummer and I'm gonna listen to the bass
I listen to the rhythm, make you wanna be your best

I listen to the drummer and I'm gonna listen to the bass
I listen to the rhythm, make you wanna be your best

It's hot and the policemen come
And try to break up the party tonight
Hey, now now
Hey, now now

Then I would stand in front with you
And we would brace ourselves for the fight
All night, alright
I say

Don't tell the DJ got to turn it low
We keep on rocking to the early mornin'
I say hey, now now
I say hey, now now

Don't tell the people that they got to go
I wanna keep 'em 'til the early mornin'
I say hey, now now
I say hey, now now

I listen to the drummer and I'm gonna listen to the bass

I listen to the rhythm, [Incomprehensible]
I listen to the drummer and I'm gonna listen to the bass
I listen to the rhythm, [Incomprehensible]

Music was grinding, they was doing that dance
But you know you see it on the rap stages all the time
They're shaking their arms
They was, they was dropping it like it was hot
That's what I think, that's what they call it
They was dropping it like it was hot
