Say when you called me that night
To tell me that things
They weren't goin' alright with your boyfriend
Was it me, or did you just want somebody to talk to?

Then is it you or the fact that I can't be near you
That keeps you in the front of my mind
When your voice goes away
And a breath is the last thing that you say

But the warmth of your lips on my fingertips, they won't go away
When I drop my head in my hands and play
The memory of that night in L.A.
Again and again and again and

Because, I can't think straight and I can't sleep late
The few times we shared I try to recreate
'Cause I know this is wrong I better stop this talk Because grass can grow up through a crack in the sidewalk

What I see when I look in your eyes
Grass that's truly greenest sprouting inside
I wasn't even looking when I realized
That you had the vibe that was my fertilizer

Thought that love in this world was dead and buried and gone
How could I be so cynical when I was so young?
You hit me in the chest like and 808 boom
I found love is the shit that makes life bloom

Yes, love is the shit that makes life bloom
You never know when you might step in it
Love is the shit that makes life bloom
And you never know when you might

Love is the shit that makes life bloom
You never know when you might step in it
Love is the shit that makes life bloom
And you never know when you might

And fate is like a pigeon that follows me around Sometimes he flies ahead and he brings me what he found
Then he'll drop it on my head leave me numb from the brain down
That's the way it was when I walked upon your ground

The irrepressible and impermissible
Are the two things that have made my life miserable
'Cause spirits don't leave if you don't talk about 'em
And memories come back when you don't think about
'em

I wished I had an ocean of some magic potion
I'd trade all this emotion for a few moments of motion
But I've never felt this way some things can't be rehearsed
Now, I'm grindin' up my gearbox, tryin' to find reverse to go

Love is the shit that makes life bloom
You never know when you might step in it
Love is the shit that makes life bloom
And you never know when you might

Love is the shit that makes life bloom
You never know when you might step in it
Love is the shit that makes life bloom
And you never know when you might

But I want to keep on walkin', right through, oh, oh
And let this feelin' rock me, oh, oh
[Incomprehensible] keep on walkin', right through, oh,
oh
And let this fellin' rock me, oh, oh, oh, oh yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

You know fallin' in love, like easing into a hot tub
It feels good on your feet, by the time you Get to your mid section, you get
All the way in and get all the way out

Music brings me comfort in this grieving hour
The Sade tape tells me it's all over for now
I listen read hard but don't dare play loud
'Cause I don't wanna think what you might be doin' now

Sometimes it feels like a bad initiation
But you woke my heart from a long hibernation

You were worth every risk, so I gave my heart room
And now I'm deep in the doo that makes life bloom

Because, love is the shit that makes life bloom
You never know when you might step in it
Love is the shit that makes life bloom
And you never know when you might

And love is the shit that makes life bloom
You never know when you might step in it
Love is the shit that makes life bloom
And you never know when you might

But I want to keep on walkin', right through
And let this feelin' rock me, oh, oh
Yes, I want to keep on walkin', right through, oh, oh
And let this feelin' rock me, oh, oh, oh, oh yeah, yeah,
yeah
Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

See the flowers bloomin' in the springtime, oh, oh, oh
See the bees zoomin' in the sunshine, oh yeah
See the flowers bloomin' in the springtime, oh, oh, oh
See the bees zoomin' in the sunshine, oh yeah, yeah

See the flowers bloomin' in the springtime, yeah, yeah
See the flowers
