Avert Your Gaze! by We Followed The Giant

Please darling
Tell me what you desire
We're broken vessels beyond repair

Left and lost without
This breath I take is far
Far too weak for this
I'm for far too weak for this
I'm fine with moving on
But you've been gone so long
We made the same mistakes
Without death to blame

You're all I wanted
The only one for me

Please darling
Tell me what you desire
We're broken vessels beyond repair

Burn
Deep cuts and one track thoughts (x2)

Please darling tell me
What you desire

Please darling
Tell me what you desire
We're broken vessels beyond repair

We are broken vessels beyond repair!

We are broken vessels beyond vessels!

Broken vessels!

Beyond repair!
