I used to feel blue
My hopes became true
How long have I searched for someone like you

No minute goes by
Just an ocean of you
I still get down
And that's really true

I used to feel blue
My hopes became true
How long have I searched for someone like you

No minute goes by
Just an ocean of you
I still get down
And that's really true

I used to feel blue
My hopes became true
How long have I searched for you
For someone like you

Yeah
How long have I searched for someone like you
How long have I searched for you
For someone like you

I used to feel blue
My hopes became true
How long have I searched for someone like you

No minute goes by
Just an ocean of you
I still get down
And that's really true

I used to feel blue
My hopes became true
How long have I searched for someone like you

No minute goes by

Just an ocean of you
I still get down
And that's really true

Yeah
How long have I searched for you
For someone like you
