Darkness catches my thoughts
Take the air that I breathe
Give me the love that I need
In the way that you did

Weakness is the feeling I got
When I hit on the walls,
When all doors are shut
My life is overrated
Living, is to die frustrated

My heart is bleeding
Just a picture of you makes me know that I'll die
With one step closer
You could end this demise so take my hand

Take my hand and bring me to that place
Where we belong to
Take my hand
And bring me to that place where all those miracles
happen

Mercy, is the feeling I got
When I look into your eyes and all I see is fuck
Your life seems overrated
So I'll help you die frustrated

Cunt!
Take my hand and bring me to that place
Where we belong to
Take my hand
And bring me to that place where all those miracles
Bring me to that place where we belong
Cause one more time I wanna see you crying
