Spoken: Boy me a' fie go leave that town here ya know
Because it too hot.
Too hot, this town is too hot Now they're calling for their guns About to Spoil the rude boys funs But rude boys never give up their guns It's too hot.
No man, can tell them what to do Pound for pound, they say they ruder than You They all hot, and over town You might have a couple you like Choose your burial site Make insurance make up your Will Come out and tell them, fight them.
(guitar solo)
The soldiers came back to you without them The police force are afraid they Can't even touch them They said you think you're bad Why don't you come out yourself These boys are spoiling for a Fight Fighting tonight, they don't lie It's too hot.
Too hot Too hot (repeat till end)
