For all you gave me,
God knows I'm grateful,
A place inside our falling star.

It's much too late now,
To say your sorry,
You broke too far where,
No one could follow

There's nothing in my dreams but you,
You know I'd take it all for you.

Before I realised,
You had so much sorrow,
Your dreams of Silence,
Pulled much too strong,

There's nothing in my dreams but you,
You know I'd take it all for you...
