I'm so misunderstood
Around my neighborhood.
I do what I do to protect myself.
You do it too, so does everyone else!
It's a matter of perception
Ain't that the truth?
So why am I sittin' here with a case of the no friends
blues?

For now, all I can say,
They're all afraid of my spray.
I'm really as harmless, as can be!
Just ask anyone from my family!
They always tell me I'm so cute...
So why do I have a case of these no friends blues?

One of these days, I'm gonna be the Queen of Perfume!
People will all crowd around me, when I walk...in the room!
Popular, will be my name,
They'll all wanna smell.
They'd ask me how I make my stuff...
As if I'd ever tell!

For now, all I can say...
I'm misunderstood,
So misunderstood.

I'm misunderstood.
So misunderstood.
Why, oh why, oh why am I so misunderstood...?
