You see, I never were a man of words
I used to run from everthing, myself included
But now I'm standing here before you, all is clear Your smile makes me feel like I can finally speak up

I will catch you when you fall
I'll never let you off my mind
as long as
I will breathe my heart will beat for no one else but you Listen as I sing it from the deepest inner of my soul from now on to eternity
I'm always by your side

I know you never that girl they said they knew Want you to see that I care for you don't push me away
There will be times when all these words seem far away
But now somehow
I want you to recall to my song

I will catch you when you fall
I'll never let you off my mind
as long as
I will breathe my heart beat for no one else but you Listen as I sing it from the deepest inner of my soul
from now on to eternity
I'm always by your side

In all your doubts try to remember this song is for you It's nothing much
'cus
words will never be enough for what you mean to me

I will catch you when you fall
I'll never let you off my mind
as long as
Listen as I sing it from the deepest inner of my soul
from now on to eternity

I will catch you when you fall

I'll never let you off my mind

Listen as I sing it from the deepest inner of my soul

from now on to eternity
