Cold eyes stare back at me, like a white clover
I keep hiding from myself, you're taking over
Cold hearts with nothing left, I feel departed
There is nothing left to say
I'm broken hearted

Don't you tell me that my love is not enough
Don't you tell me that my heart is not enough, to be with you
Can't you see that I'm dying here inside
Can't you ever see that I have lost my mind
Because of you, goodbye
I'm Shivering

Tearful eyes stare back at me
This way it's tougher
Sad memories from the past, why did I suffer
Too tired to move on, I've lost my purpose
I keep hiding from myself, I feel so worthless

Don't you say that you can't live without me now Don't you tell me, 'cause you didn't even try to be with me
Can't you see that I'm hurting deep inside
Don't you know how many times I had to cry,
Because of you, Goodbye
I'm Shivering

Don't you tell me that my love is not enough
Don't you tell me that my heart is not enough, to be with
you
Can't you see that I'm dying here inside
Can't you ever see that I have lost my mind
Because of you, Goodbye
I'm Shivering
