Clouds can't recall the last time I've seen a sunny day
([Weichen] Aah~ No!)

The night life, toxic in disguise over eyes wide shut!

[Cheondung]
I see a lot of broken bottles scattered on a field of broken dreams

So many shattered windows from hopes thrown away
It seems we enjoy the pain that we bring into our own world
Light a fire watching it burn
I'm sick and tired, I've had enough
We need time to heal & stop picking at the scars
If we can grow together instead of growing apart Maybe we can save what wasn't even ours from the start

[Weichen] I wanna run away!
