He was down
On the ground
Being frowned upon
By everyone even himself
Who would have guessed
That he would be where he is now
But did you see that glint in his eye

One two three four

Oh what's this
A near miss
But closer than the last
He's moving faster than he was before
Still on the floor
But signs of rising up
He's got his mind made up
And did you see that glint in his eye

He says ha ha look at me now
He says I bet you thought I was down and out
He says ha ha maybe next time
But not while there's a glint in my eye

Hey hey

So he attacks
No holding back
With a smile on his face
He was just pacing himself until the end
You thought he was spent
It's time for your defence
Because he took offence
So let's hope you've got that glint in your eye

He says ha ha look at me now
He says I bet you thought I was down and out
He says ha ha maybe next time
But not while there's a glint in my eye

One two three four

Hey hey hey

He says ha ha look at me now
He says I bet you thought I was down and out
He says ha ha maybe next time
But not while there's a glint in my eye
