come on, come on I'm back to where I came from come on, come on I'm back to where I belong hello, hello I'm back and ready to go so come on, come on I'm back to where I came from so glad I made it, now I'm back again I wanna say it, to get my message sent I'm sick of waiting, walking out the door

No hesitating, cos now I'm back for more

Don't waste my time, I'm feeling fine
I want you to know that there's no doubt about it Once again I'm ready to go, now don't you know It's been too long! so come on
