Sometimes I'm filled with emotions
Thinking of how life would be
If I didn't have you beside me
Oh Lord, where would I be

You give me life everlasting
Your promise deep in my soul
To everyone who is searching for something
Lord, why can't they see

(Chorus)
You are the one that I need
You are the air that I breathe
You wipe the tears from my eyes
I want them to see you're the love of my life
You are the ray of sunlight
Through my darkest times
No I can't stop, I won't stop
Telling the whole world about you

There are some days I feel lonely
And I'm afraid of what life may bring
Temptation tries to distract me from you Lord
But conviction brings me back to my knees

(Repeat Chorus)
