Is it lonely inside of your heart
Are you searching for forever
But don't know where to start
And love, it seems so far away

It just doesn't seem to matter anymore
One more broken promise
Is not worth fighting for
It's a game you shouldn't have to play

(Repeat Chorus)

I know somebody who's dying to love you
And I know, somebody who knows how you feel
Don't you ever believe that there's not somebody
Who can make all your dreams come true
Cause I know, I know somebody who will

Should you ever decide you are ready
To give love one more chance
And explore just what could be
It's as easy, as falling to your knees

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:
His arms have always been reaching for you
It's the only thing they know how to do

(Repeat Chorus)
