"Take Me By The Hand"

I get these attacks where I just refuse
To pick myself up and carry on
I stop in my tracks, I shake in my shoes
My courage is gone, then I hear You say

CHORUS

Take Me by the hand, let Me lead you up
To a place
Where all of your tears subside
Take Me by the hand, let Me lead you out
Of this valley over to the other side

(and we'll walk together)

As a general rule I try to stay real
I like to avoid all the big clichés
But when totally cool is not how I feel
And I'm lost in a haze, I need to hear
You say

CHORUS

Let Me take your pain
Let Me throw your sin into the sea
Let Me hide the awful things
You've built
Turn it all over to Me

I can take it, I can break it
I can make it better than it was before
