"Nowhere Flag"

The partners left,
The party ends,
The room looks brighter in this foreign land,

The nowhere flag,
Is up in flames,
And all that's left is empty frames,

But don't be scared,
By what's been said here,
At least you know now it's not your head,

The polls they show,
It's a healthy doubt,
We've done our research and it all checks out,

Like heroin,
Under willow shade,
They turn it loose on the public cage,

After all these talks,
And failed brakes,
Our faith has fled through the fire escape,

But it's a gamble,
You know you'll take,
Cause uncle wants you to stay that way,

The polls they show,
It's a healthy doubt,
We've done our research and it all checks out.
