Blacked out falling on the floor tonight
That's what I do to feel the light
You tow the open line that draws me in

Everytime I sink a little lower
In the deep tonight
I don't remember anything
I used to like about you
And why I always let you win

And as the saying goes
Don't let your enemies become friends

For the record, I never wanted this
For the record, I wish we never met
And opened up this mess
I couldn't keep up so we cracked up
And now everything is worse

I should have known
I'm better off on the floor alone
Sometimes closure
Doesn't close out anything at all

Roughed up rolling in the after glow
My dark mistakes they start to show
You operate the spotlight I bathe in

Every time I put a little faith
In my hopelessness
I recall why I'm such a wreck about you
And how you never let me win

And as the saying goes
Don't let your enemies become friends

For the record, I never wanted this
For the record, I wish we never met
And opened up this mess
I couldn't keep up so we cracked up
And now everything is worse

I should have known
I'm better off on the floor alone
'Cause sometimes closure
Doesn't close out anything at all

All you ever did was use me like a puppet
Stringing me along just to let me loose
Giving me a choice, so I have to choose

All I ever did was put it in the open
Giving up the chance to shut you down
You took it as a chance to shut me out

For the record, I never wanted this
For the record, I wish we never met
And opened up this mess
I couldn't keep up so we cracked up
And now everything is worse

I should have known
I'm better off on the floor alone
'Cause sometimes closure
Doesn't close out anything at all
Yeah, sometimes closure
Doesn't close out anything at all
