The nations burn!
With the hate
That we've created it's time!
Time!
To make a stand
Rise up in triumph
No more sins, exclusion, lust!
The truth is we can do better. We won't be here much longer if we don't
So Unite! Becuase together
We'll make this world better.
I'm not screamin' anger, I'm screamin' the truth
And the truth is I'm crazy for you!
(CHORUS: Screamin' the truth)
I can feel the grip of your wrath crushin down on my head!
We're tryin' to warn you, but your already dead
I'm not screamin' anger, I'm screamin' the truth
And the truth is I'm crazy for you!
Sin starts as temptation
Once you've fallen in the trap
You know you've done somethin' wrong and their aint
no goin' back.
Sitting in the darkness may sound as lonely as it gets
You feel your drowning in regret
I'm not screamin' anger, I'm screamin' the truth
And the truth is I'm crazy for you!
Don't worry you can pick yourslef up when you fall
By accepting the greatest gift of all
I'm not screamin' anger, I'm screamin' the truth
And the truth is I'm crazy for you! (x2)
